

Our Church Matters

Our Mission: Growing Together in Christ Through Worship, Fellowship, Witness and Service

Dear Friends,

Last year at this time (for the May newsletter), I wrote about the dreams of the church leadership. As you know, one of those dreams was to employ a part-time Director of Young Adult Ministries. That dream has become a reality, and a young adult group has been forming and bonding since last fall.

Another of those dreams was to engage a seminary intern. As we dreamed about what young adult ministry would look like, it was our hope that a young adult would help to lead us – someone who would connect in ways that those of us over 40 might not, and who would model ministry in ways that may be possible only for someone who is a young adult.

It is with great joy that, through a long-standing bequest from Don Allewalt, we have been blessed to find a seminary intern for the summer of 2017, May 28 through August 6.

It is actually more accurate to say that the intern found us! Katherine Gorman (who has shared a bio with us on another page of this newsletter) was an infant when I left Rodgers Forge for my new appointment to the conference staff in 1994. She is the child of two very active members (at that time) of Rodgers Forge. Her mom was the chair of our worship team and a Ph.D. candidate at Johns Hopkins, and her dad was at that time preparing for his residency as an anesthesiologist.

Katherine's current pastor and her parents recommended that she come and talk with me as another pastor who could help her discern her calling (a normal procedure for our UM candidacy process) about 18 months ago, and then she called a couple of months ago to see if we might be willing to accept her as an intern.

Our role as a teaching congregation is primarily to guide an intern in experiencing a wide range of pastoral work. While Katherine will be working with Susan and the young adults each week, we will be taking her to meet and then visit with some of our homebound members, we will have her at least observe work with some of our ministry teams, she will likely serve as a chaperone on the youth mission trip, and she will preach at least twice. Duke interns are expected to work 40 hours a week for 10 weeks, and the program will begin and end on Sunday.

One of my goals and dreams as your pastor is for us to send at least 2 people into ministry before my time with you ends. Good pastors come from good congregations! (Contrary to popular belief, pastors are not hatched!) As far as I can tell, RUMC has never sent anyone into parish ministry – at least no one in the last 40 years or more. Sue Porter was "sent" into ministry as a missionary by this congregation, and Becca Blake was formed as a disciple here for most of her life. Becca is now a Presbyterian pastor – creative and faithful. (What you may not know is that Becca was one of the little ones at Rodgers Forge when I was the pastor there. I couldn't be more proud of her!)

The UMC needs the brightest and the best to be pastors for the next 100 years, and we have the ingredients to send one of our own. My hope is that as a young adult seminary student, Katherine will help us cast a vision for growing up some new pastors and ministers of other types, especially among our young people.

So, RUMC, we need to PRAY!

Pray that we will offer Katherine an excellent experience as an intern to grow her abilities in ministry. Pray that God will touch the lives of our young people so they consider their calling, not just a career, and that those who are gifted for ministry will seriously consider a vocation.

Pray that RUMC grows spiritually as we take a new step, widening our vision to be a teaching congregation.

Prayers in the Bible - Worship Series

By the time you receive this newsletter, we will have begun a new worship series on prayer in the Bible. There are many prayers in the scriptures, and we have chosen 5 prayers for our meditations from April 23 through May 14.

Important Conversations – Worship Series

Beginning May 28, we will be focusing on important family conversations, particularly those that have to do with aging and being prepared for difficult decisions that families may face. Watch the website and midweek for more information in the coming weeks.

And as usual, May brings Graduation Sunday – May 21 – which will also be Youth Sunday. Don't miss this opportunity to support our youth and graduates in a meaningful way – with your presence.

Finally, Save these Dates! On Sunday, June 4th, we will celebrate Pentecost and Confirmation in ONE SERVICE AT 10 AM. And hold Sunday, July 9, for our church picnic and worship at Emory Grove!

See you on Sunday!

Blessings,

Vivian

Greetings from Our 2017 Summer Seminary Intern Katherine Gorman

Hi everyone! My name is Katherine and I am excited to join your church family this summer. I just finished my first year in the Masters of Divinity program at Duke Divinity School and I have recently started the ordination process in the Baltimore-Washington Conference. I was born and raised in the Baltimore area and currently live near Hunt Valley, so I am glad I am coming back from North Carolina for the summer. Most of my family still lives here, since my dad works at GBMC, my mom works at Stevenson University and my older sister works at UMD Medical School. My younger sister has one more year of college left in Pennsylvania, but she'll be around too!

My bachelor's degree is in American Studies from Washington College, but most of the work I have done so far has been with children, youth and young adults. I helped to lead the worship music at my college Christian Fellowship meetings each week for two years, I have volunteered as an assistant activity leader at an annual high school youth conference for about three years, and I have Continued on page 3 worked as a counselor at Camp Pecometh in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference in the summer of 2015, working with children in elementary and middle school. But I am particularly excited to work with the youth and young adults here because youth group led me to Christ. I was raised in the United Methodist Church from my infancy, but I did not understand the depth of God's love for me until I was in sixth grade. I first felt God's love enter my heart during a weekend youth retreat in March 2006 and from then on I began learning more about God's full nature through observation and discussions with my youth group leaders. By the following year, I learned enough about Jesus that I was ready to take confirmation class and accept Christ into my life. I am eager to spend time with the young people here and join them on their faith journeys.

I continued to grow in my faith through high school, but I did not consider entering the formal ministry until college. I first felt a call into ministry when I served on two short mission trips in Haiti in 2013. I felt very comfortable there and I wanted to do all I could to help those in physical and spiritual need. But I still felt called to seminary, for I wanted to learn more about the church and its ministry so that, as Paul told the Corinthians, "I will pray (and serve) with my spirit, but I will also pray (and serve) with my understanding" (1 Corinthians 14:15). I also knew that there was, and still is, as much need in this country and our community as there is in other countries, if not more, so I began considering service as a deacon or elder. When I looked at the guidelines for candidacy, I felt a sense of excitement and peace that told me I should consider applying to be a deacon or an elder, and after further consideration and prayer, I applied for the elder track. I am still discerning my primary vocation, for while I am still considering mission work within the church, I feel God leading me to more than I can imagine. I have also even considered hospital chaplaincy, for soon after I accepted Christ in 2007 I wanted to be a nurse and envisioned myself praying for every patient in the hospital. But now, I am allowing God to show me where I can be used in the church.

I am looking forward to meeting you all and serving Christ with you this summer!"

Beginning ... and beginning again

During the coming weeks, as you or loved ones celebrate graduation, remember it isn't a closed door, an end or a farewell. Instead, it's an entryway threshold, a beginning, a hello — and one of many such opportunities that mark life.

"God wants us to know that life is a series of beginnings, not endings, just as graduations are not terminations but commencements," writes Bernie Siegel. "Creation is an ongoing process, and when we create a perfect world where love and compassion are shared by all, suffering will cease."

Of course, we can "create a perfect world" only by letting God guide our actions. So, dear graduates, may you partner with God to meet suffering with love, kindness and compassion through all the new beginnings of your life!

The Library Log

1. May the Force Be With You! The library-sponsored movie and pizza lunch will be enjoyed in the Fellowship Hall after the second service on Sunday, May 7th. Join us to view Rogue One-A Star Wars Movie. Get your picture taken with a mystery Star Wars character or get some pointers on using your light saber. Kids, take home a special gift.

If you plan to attend, please indicate the number of family and friends on your attendance card so we order enough food. Come join the fun!

Long ago, in a galaxy far, far away......

No. No. I mean coming soon to a galaxy near you! The library is hosting a "May the Force be with you" viewing party. On Sunday, May 7th, after the second service, the Rachel Bruehl Memorial Library will be present a screening of Rogue One-A Star Wars Story, in the fellowship hall.

Help me, Obi Wan Kenobi, you're my only hope." Did you ever wonder what led up to this now famous quote and our first vision of the "galaxy-far, far away"?

Our imaginations were never a match for the action packed prequel, Rogue One-A Star Wars Story. Lucas Films bring us the tale of ordinary people who choose to do extraordinary things. This wonderful and flawed group of unlikely heroes band together to steal the plans for the original Death Star from the evil Empire. This epic journey will bring us within moments of "A New Hope."

If you haven't seen it, be prepared for an amazing adventure. If you have, join us nevertheless, for Death Star Pizza, Light Saber Pretzels, an array of surprises, and of course, books for the younger fans.

Book Club will meet on May 17th at 7:00 in the church library

Our book choice is Big Little Lies by Liane Moriarty. Discussion will go well beyond the solving of a death with occurs at the local elementary school's trivia night fund raiser. The lives of four mothers, husbands, ex-husbands and children percolate and become entwined due to lies, secrets and deceptions. As time passes, it seems only natural that all the families and those involved in the school must face inevitable crises.

Dreamers: An Immigrant Generation's Fight for Their American Dream

Tam is a Master's graduate from UCLA. She worked her way through school because she does not qualify for student aide. She loses her job once a year because the government is slow in processing her work visa and she has to start all over. Her family fled Vietnam before she was born. She was born in a refugee camp in Germany. They came to America when she was 5 to join the rest of her family. The United States has issued her deportation papers but neither Vietnam nor Germany will accept her. She is a woman without a country.

Nancy is 29 and works in the local government in California. One morning her car was pulled over and she was taken to a deportation center with only the clothes she was wearing. Less than a day later she was deported to Tijuana. She had left Mexico as a small child and she finds herself in a country where she has no contacts. She is not allowed to return to the United States even as a visitor to collect her possessions or access her bank account.

These are the stories of the Dreamers: A generation of undocumented residents that came to the United States as small children. Now they are being deported to countries where they have not been in over 20 years. They consider themselves Americans: they have gone to school here, worked here and don't remember any other country. They were brought to America by their parents with no choice in the decision. This book personalizes the immigration situation. It was an easy and interesting read. The book can be found with the other UMW Reading Program Books located in our library to the right of the desk.

Do you

From the Shelves

Do you have your priorities in order? Whether or not you do, you should read The Priority List by David Menasche. While a teacher, Menasche asks his students to make a list of the priorities of the characters in Shakespeare's "Othello." This helps his students to relate to those characters. Menasche then asks his students to make a list of their own priorities, and that turns out to be a successful experiment.

When Menasche is diagnosed with brain cancer, his priorities change. He decides to go on a trip around the country visiting his former students. We follow him on his journey and learn how he touched the lives of many young people. Check it out for yourself in our church library.

Our Daily Bread—A Partner in Ministry

When I visited with Frank Simmonds in March, he was eager to show me an article and fun piece written by Ernie Imhoff, a Springwell neighbor of Frank's. Mr. Imhoff, a 1959 graduate of Williams College and retired City Editor of The Evening Sun who was on the beach in Florida covering Apollo 11 and worked for The Sun for 36 years, has taken up cooking since his move to Springwell.

What does he cook, you ask? And why would we be sharing this story in the RUMC newsletter? He bakes casse-roles for Our Daily Bread! He also bakes banana bread to share with new Springwell residents and others. Mr. Imhoff reported in the Springwell monthly newsletter that he has baked over 100 casseroles for ODB since he moved to the senior living community. [For a Sun photo of Mr. Imhoff go to https://goo.gl/j5Xrkt] I thought you might enjoy Mr. Imhoff's ditty on making casseroles:

Cookin' Mac and Cheese for Jesus (by Ernie Imhoff)

I'm cookin' mac and cheese for Jesus

Ain't in no gourmet mood
Get no space for dancin' here
Just cookin' the comfort food.

Folks out there are hungry They seen their share of gloom I'm cookin' zippy beef for Jesus In my four-by-four-foot room. I'm sweatin' at the stove for Jesus And singin' right pretty tune But I'm starvin', eatin' the chili first Don't wanna go to heaven too soon.

Mash up three old brown bananas Banana bread don't tall all your wits But when bakin' for Sweet Jesus

You might wanna add the chocolate bits.

How to Become a Member of RUMC

Membership in a United Methodist Church means taking on several responsibilities by making several promises. We promise to pray for each other and the church, to be there —our presence, to offer our gifts of both time and money, to serve in the church and beyond the church, and to witness to our faith.

It is not necessary to be a member of RUMC to participate in pretty much all of our ministries. There are a few offices that a non-member cannot hold because of our church law, but other than that, you are welcome to be a fully participating part of the RUMC faith family. We will care for you in every way (such as funerals, weddings, etc.), whether you are a member or not.

It is my prayer that many of those who visit will feel called to become members of the church, but you are welcome to be part of our faith family for as long as you wish without becoming a member.

That said, there is an opportunity in 2017 to become a member of RUMC coming in May. Our membership process requires that you commit to attend 2 gatherings before new member Sunday and then be present on the special Sunday.

The Gatherings:

Sunday, May 21st, about 11:45am. In the Fellowship Hall Vivian will meet with the prospective new members to talk together about being United Methodist. Lunch will be provided.

Tuesday, May 23rd at 6:30 pm, the prospective new members will meet with the leaders of the church who will share about our ministries and get to know the new members.

Sunday, June 11th new members will join the church at both Services (whichever one you normally attend), and a special coffee hour will be held so that new members may be acquainted with the congregation.

If you are interested in becoming a member of RUMC, please let the pastor know via email or the Connection Card. Or call the church office if you'd like to talk about it first!
