

Our Church Matters

Our Mission: Growing Together in Christ Through Worship, Fellowship, Witness and Service

From the Pastor:

It was Anniversary Sunday, and we were singing God Is Here. I've always loved that hymn, but on that morning it became a special vehicle of God's grace, specifically the second verse:

Here are symbols to remind us of our lifelong need of grace;
here are table, font, and pulpit; here the cross has central place.
Here in honesty of preaching, here in silence, as in speech, here, in newness and renewal, God the Spirit comes to each.

For some reason, the first line really grabbed me – symbols...remind us of our lifelong need of grace. I'm a visual kind of gal, and symbol really is important to me – the things that make my faith come to life. I must have needed a reminder in the deep recesses of my soul, and when we got to the words "here the cross has central place," my eyes were drawn up to the huge cross behind the altar.

There wasn't a specific message. No particular direction. Just the reminder – that God's grace is sufficient to sustain me – to sustain us.

May you feel the deep refreshment of grace throughout this holy season of Lent.

Blessings on you!

GOD IS HERE—UMH #660

1) God is here! As we your people meet to offer praise and prayer, may we find in fuller measure what it is in Christ we share.
Here, as in the world around us,
all our varied skills and arts wait the coming of the Spirit into open minds and hearts.

2) Here are symbols to remind us of our lifelong need of grace;
here are table, font, and pulpit;
here the cross has central place.
Here in honesty of preaching,
here in silence, as in speech,
here, in newness and renewal,
God the Spirit comes to each.

3) Here our children find a welcome in the Shepherd's flock and fold;
here as bread and wine are taken,
Christ sustains us, as of old.
Here the servants of the Servant seek in worship to explore what it means in daily living to believe and to adore.

4) Lord of all, of church and kingdom,
in an age of change and doubt
keep us faithful to the gospel;
help us work your purpose out.
Here, in this day's dedication,
all we have to give, receive;
we, who cannot live without you,
we adore you! We believe!

ONE BAND, ONE SOUND!

We are called to be One Body, connected in covenant, like a band playing in concert with one another. And like a band, we all come with something special, something different. We all have our own part and our own specialty, which played on its own may be beautiful but is solitary. It is only by coming together that we can create a masterpiece of ministry. For the 2018 Baltimore Region Leadership Day, we invite you to come and join the band! This year we bring you classes geared toward helping each section of our churches work together along with Erin Hawkins the General Secretary of GCORR as our guest speaker, we will work to be the Body of Christ create one beautiful sound.

Peace,

John Gauthier

Library Log:

1. Some history: The first free public library supported by taxation opened in Petersborough, NH in 1833. Philanthropist Andrew Carnegie helped build 1,700 public libraries between 1881-1919. Darby Free Library in Darby, PA is America's oldest public library in continuous service since 1743.

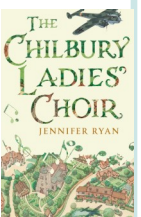

2. Carroll County Public Library and A Likely Story Book Store will sponsor a talk by author Brad Metzler on Wednesday, March 7th at 7:00 PM at Carroll Community College. This author is well-known for writing thrillers.

For more information call Amber at 443-293-3141 or email at afarran@carr.org.

Book Club will meet Wednesday, March 21 at 7:00 in our library to discuss a charming and inspirational novel, The Chilbury Ladies Choir by Jennifer Ryan. At the beginning of WWII, the Vicar of Chilbury has told his congregation that the choir will be dissolved due to the lack of men. The ladies feel otherwise! They lift up themselves and the community with their singing during the dark days of war.

Many times we ask for volunteers to help as acolyte but we don't give them the "WHY" of what we are doing. Please pray about serving in our worship services or serving in some way at RUMC. Help us be community inside and outside these walls.

Excerpt from The Acolyte's Book by H. Hickman

"Since ancient times, light and fire reminded people that God is here with us. When you bring the light (fire) into the place where people are gathering to worship and when you light the candles, you are reminding the people that God is with us at home, at school, and at work, as well as in the worship service. When people look at the lighted candles, they more easily think about God and feel God's presence."

Celebration of Women (aka Mother/Daughter Banquet)

Mark your calendars for May 10th at 6:30 pm in the Fellowship Hall.

We are in search of some props and memorabilia from the 1920's. If you have anything that would fit that bill, please contact Kathy Bogert (410-833-3464) or Linda Morrison (410-833-6544). We do not want the items as yet, but if we can at least find out what is available, that would be perfect.

MEN! We need your assistance! If you would please contact Kathy Bogert or Linda Morrison and let them know that you are willing to serve the night of the banquet, we would eternally grateful!

SUMMER CAMP Fun, Faith, and Friends

Camp offers opportunities to live and play together, learn and serve together, and make friends for life! The Baltimore-Washington Conference offers summer camp opportunities at West River and Manidokan.

Youth in grades 2 through 12 get to swim, climb, fly on the giant swing/zip line, canoe, tube, raft, kayak, sail, hike, play, create, and most importantly experience God's presence.

We serve from 11:30 to 1:00.

All are welcome. If you would like to help with preparation or serving, please contact Lani Hoffmann at 410-526-6967.

The Community Lunch was blessed to have the student government from Franklin Elementary School volunteer at our February meal.

15 kids and their parents helped set tables, prepare food, ice cupcakes, do dishes and more. The kids enthusiastically waited on each guest, much to the guest's delight. One of the students repeatedly said "This is so much fun. Can I come back?" Thank you to Nan Kane, who teaches at Franklin Elementary and each year brings her students to help.

Call to Prayer & Self-Denial

Prayer and Self Denial

Each year during the Lenten season, the United Methodist women run a very special program called Prayer and Self Denial. It seems fitting that during this time of self reflection, we concentrate on what we can do to make the lives of others better. The goal for this year's program is Learning for a Lifetime – Developing Leaders.

Offerings will be used for national and international programs such as:

- ♦ Child development and after school programs
- ♦ GED and ESL programs
- ♦ Job readiness
- ♦ Life skills and livelihood training
- ♦ Scholarships, workshops, and seminars, both formal and informal

We will have offering envelopes in the bulletins in March. 100% of this offering will go directly to these programs, both globally and in the United States. More information will be forthcoming as we prepare for the program start. It is amazing what can be accomplished when we all work together. This year's program reminds me of the Chinese proverb, "Give a man a fish, he'll eat for a day, but teach him how to fish and he will have fish for a lifetime." Please donate to this most worthwhile endeavor.

Thank you, Darlene Gobrecht

Why I wanted to participate in racism discussion.

When I first received the information about the Racism Study at church, I considered whether to participate or not. After all, I felt I was a fairly open-minded person and was able to see past skin color as I interacted with others.

But then I started thinking more about the subject. What do I need to hear about racism and how it is impacting people? How can I open my eyes to have a better understanding of the racism that exists? During my life, I have had times when people have felt that an action I took was discriminatory against them. How do I work to make sure that does not happen again? So, the first reason I wanted to be involved in the discussion was to listen and learn more about what others are experiencing in their lives. To broaden my perspective and gain a better understanding of racism.

The second reason I wanted to participate was to take action on the prayers that I pray. I believe there are many of us praying for peace. Peace for our family, community, country, the world and ourselves. I am reminded of a song by Matthew West where the lyrics include cries out to God asking for His help to deal with big issues in our lives. The lyrics ask God what He is doing about these issues. God explains that what He did was to create each one of us. If I want peace, it starts with me. As I participate in this group, I hope that the Lord will help me to step out of my comfort zone and open my eyes to hearing how racism is hurting others. I want to keep an eye out for ways to ensure that my thoughts, my words and my actions reflect respect and the love of Jesus toward others. Finally, I pray that the Lord will guide me in finding ways to spread the peace of Christ.

Do I have more questions now than when I started the study? Yes. Do I have more that I need to work on personally? For sure. I look forward to our continued conversations whether it be around racism or other issues. I am grateful for the leaders of our church and others all around that help us all to grow in the light of Christ. I am also grateful to the members of our study group for sharing and growing together.

May the Lord continue to bless and guide us all as we grow together.

Bonnie Lieberman

"No man can change the truth"

Why do we as Christians ask the difficult questions tackling the challenges of our times? It is because that is who we are. We are the seekers of "the way, the truth and the light." (John 14:6) That journey may not proceed as expected and may bring the discomfort of feelings, findings and still yet more questions with or without answers. Members of the congregation this year have taken up the discussion of race. The question has arisen, "Why talk about it?" My response is, "Why would you not want to talk about it?" From a religious viewpoint many of Jesus' teachings and that of the apostles were about how we are to treat one another. The abolitionist movement of the 1800's against enslavement of Africans was in part fueled by a growing religious fervor of the time. Racism, sexism and ageism were written into the U. S. Constitution until nullified by amendments. The religious community, both predominantly White and African-American played a significant role in the Civil Rights Era of the 1950's to 70's.

Recently I read an article about how the Russian "bots and trolls" are targeting the topics of race, guns as well as other potentially divisive issues in our society as a means of impacting U.S. elections. They are doing this through agitating groups on both sides of these concerns. I find it ironic that our country has spent countless dollars in military defense of our democracy and many have given their lives in service to this country, yet we are made weak and easily manipulated because of the issues that we allow to divide us and have difficulty resolving. A time-worn phrase, "A house divided cannot stand", describes our current Christian and societal reality. The Russians have figured this out and are fighting us without firing a single missile."

The late theologian, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, stated: "No man in the world can change the truth. One can only look for the truth, find it and serve it. The truth is in all places." We must be bold and continue to engage in this current discussion about race as well as other concerns that might be undertaken in the future. Our future as a people of faith and as a democratic society depends on it.

To the people and staff of RUMC: Thanks for all your help providing pickup and storage for 3 rooms of furniture donated to New Pathways, Inc., for their 21-year-olds aging out of foster care. The donation was huge in terms of what is normally donated and required quite a bit of volunteer effort to get it while Dennis and I were out of town. You have helped make about 4 young people very happy as the recipients of such nice things. Appreciate your partnership in this effort to be "family" for the many young adults who don't have family they can count on for support as they launch into total independence.

Appreciate all your support and kindness for those in need,

Carol Yocum

The Preschool wants to thank the Turnbaugh Trust Team for our recent in house field trip. Reba Rocket from the Eric Energy Science Team came and taught us about air and Carbon dioxide. We had so much fun.
