

Our Church Matters

Our Mission: Growing Together in Christ
Through Worship, Fellowship, Witness and Service

Dear friends,

Last Monday I took an unexpected little trip to the E.R. with my daughter for some stitches, which feels like a rite of passage for active kids. While we were there, she was her usual outgoing self, which in this situation looked a lot like bargaining with the medical staff - first making an argument for glue (vs. stitches), and then talking them down from three stitches to two. While I was watching their interactions with her and noticing how good they were with her, I couldn't help but think, "These are people who are really using their gifts."

Whenever I encounter people so clearly serving in their areas of giftedness, it always makes me do my own little gifts assessment. How am I using the gifts God has given me? Are there any gifts that I'm underutilizing in this season? If my answer to the second question is "yes," I begin to think about the needs I know about, and prayerfully ponder whether God might be calling me to use my gifts to fulfill a need. This call from God is what many folks often call "vocation."

Vocation is not always synonymous with our careers. It's also not necessarily a lifelong endeavor. Some of us may experience God's call to something specific for a season, or to something general (empowering young people, for example, or helping people who are marginalized), which may end up looking different throughout our lives.

You may be familiar with Fred Buechner's definition of vocation, which is "the place where our deep gladness meets the world's deep need." In my mind, "deep gladness" refers to a combination of our passion and giftedness, since anyone who's ever tried to serve in an area outside of their giftedness knows how challenging (and sometimes miserable) it can be.

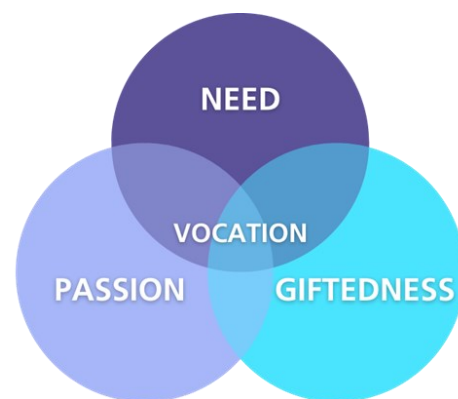

What is your vocation? If you aren't sure, consider this an invitation to ponder your areas of passion and giftedness. The needs are numerous - both in the world and in the church. How might you use your gifts to make a difference in the world God loves?

Blessings and peace,
Pastor Jen

Micah 6:8 But he's already made it plain how to live, what to do, what GOD is looking for in men and women. It's quite simple: Do what is fair and just to your neighbor, be compassionate and loyal in your love, And don't take yourself too seriously-- take God seriously.

John Wesley's General Rules

- 1. Do no harm; avoid evil of every kind
- 2. Do all the good you can, as far as possible, to all persons.
- 3. Attend to the ordinances of God (Stay in Love with God):
  - a. Public Worship
  - b. The ministry of the Word
  - c. The Lord's Supper
  - d. Family and Private prayer
  - e. Searching the scriptures
  - f. Fasting or abstinence

Matthew 28:16-20 16-17 Meanwhile, the eleven disciples were on their way to Galilee, headed for the mountain Jesus had set for their reunion. The moment they saw him they worshiped him. Some, though, held back, not sure about worship, about risking themselves totally.

18-20 Jesus, undeterred, went right ahead and gave his charge: "God authorized and commanded me to commission you: Go out and train everyone you meet, far and near, in this way of life, marking them by baptism in the threefold name: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Then instruct them in the practice of all I have commanded you. I'll be with you as you do this, day after day after day, right up to the end of the age."

*Reflect and discuss:

1. John Wesley, Methodism's founder, advised:
"Do no harm. Do good. Stay in love with God."
What do you appreciate about these rules? If you could choose one to work on in the coming days, which would it be? How might your life be different if you took these rules to heart?
2. What do you think about the Micah verse?
3. Think about how people pour themselves out as they serve like Christ. What makes them special. Identify ways at camp you might serve like Christ, to those around you.
4. Imagine you were asked to write a set of rules to assist your congregation "to make disciples for the transformation of the world." What rules would you suggest?

Prayer: God is present. We have a God willing to stand with us in the midst of the fiery furnace; a God willing to stand with us in the fiery furnace of mission. Let us go into the depths of the fire and be present to our brothers and sisters who are crying out for help. In your name we pray. Amen

WORSHIP WITH US SUNDAY MORNINGS, IN PERSON OR ONLINE

We now have several ways to join us virtually, including Zoom, Facebook Live, and a livestream that appears at the bottom of our worship page: <http://rumcweb.org/event/2021-05-23-1000-am-service/> This is the easiest way to view the service and also provides the highest quality viewing experience - especially for those with low internet speeds.
