PENTECOST! A story of WIND, FIRE, AND ECSTASY!

Acts 2: 1-3: When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place, and suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them.

The drama of Pentecost is huge! This story rivals Easter for drama and is just as important to our lives as Christians. The disciples had been huddled in a room, probably dejected and depressed since things hadn't gone the way they had wanted them to, waiting for they knew not what. I would hope that some of them remembered and were focusing on the promise that Jesus was to send a Comforter, but I'm not sure I would have kept my eye on that particular ball — would you? I wonder how real the Resurrection seemed to them on that day after weeks of waiting for something else.

The Holy Spirit definitely got their attention! Enough so that not just the disciples, but people from all over the world, were attracted by the excitement and committed themselves to Christ on that day!

Do you remember John's message to the 7 churches in the Revelation of John? He wrote an individual message to each of the churches, and to the church of Laodicea, he wrote, "I know your works; you are neither cold nor hot. I wish that you were either cold or hot. So, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to spit you out of my mouth." (Rev. 3:15-16) The church, born with fire and wind and ecstatic tongues, had already lost the passion. Something dragged them down. The chapter hints at reliance on worldly possessions being part of their ruin.

One of my favorite Pentecost hymns is See How Great a Flame Aspires by Charles Wesley. The first verse goes like this:

See how great a flame aspires, kindled by a spark of grace.
Jesus' love the nations fires, sets the kingdoms on a blaze.
To bring fire on earth he came, kindled in some hearts it is;
O that all might catch the flame, all partake the glorious bliss!

This month, high on my prayer list are two things:

- that Jayme Gede, Katie Holsonbake, Ryan McManus, Derek Morris, Jonathan Raab, Maddie Stewart, the 2014 Confirmation Class, will feel the passion of the fire of the Spirit as they make a new commitment to follow Christ, and
- that each and every one of us will be kindled into a new flame of commitment right along with them!

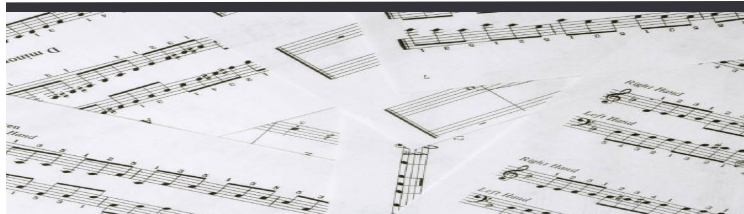

Blessings on you,

Theresa

Please begin planning now to be in worship on June 8, Pentecost Sunday. There will be only 1 service on that day at 10:30 with a celebration at 9:30 (breakfast and birthday cake – how can it get any better than that!?!) so that we may celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit as a whole faith family. I hope that all of you will come that Sunday for the “breakfast” and whole church worship service. I expect that the service will be a little longer than an hour, but I am praying that it will be worth every second! Oh – and get your red outfit ready for that day. If it’s Pentecost, we just have to wear RED!!! (And Sue Wright tells me that if you will each bring a red geranium, she will plant them outside the brick wall to bring beauty and witness to the whole community!)

PLEASE RSVP by calling the Office by June 1st so we know how much food to have. Thank you!

Thank You Time -

BOOK CLUB NEWS:

June Book Club
Wednesday June 18th
at 7:00pm in the Library.

Our choice for the month is Me Before You by JoJo Moyes.

This romantic novel tells the story of two main characters who have nothing in common. Lou is a small-town girl who takes a job with Will, a wheelchair-bound man who had lived in the fast lane. Before his accident he was involved in big deals, extreme sports, and world travel. This sounds like a good read sitting under a tree or on the beach.

Library Log

The Library committee went shopping. We purchased two beautiful chairs for your comfort. Come in and try them out! They are located in front of the windows on the right next to the fiction section

We also hosted a morning with Mr. Bob, the storyteller, to entertain our church Nursery School. His great stories, songs, silly hats and a bubble machine taught the children about trains and under the sea. All children had a snack between the two sessions and took home a book, a gift from the library. Children and adults enjoyed themselves very much!

More from the Library...

The library will now be open during the Grow Hour. If you are not involved in a study, you are most welcome to come in to read, check out a book, and visit with others. We have 3 newspapers available to read--The Baltimore Sun, The Community Times, and The Carroll County Times.

Did you know that the church library does not use the Dewey Decimal System? When we started out years ago, our collection was very small. These books were assigned special category numbers and the list of categories increased as donations increased. For example, all books about the Bible can be found in category #2 and all fiction books are in #33. All books and shelves are marked and a classification list is posted. Confused? Don't be; it's easy.

Did you know that our latest purchase was a cheerful rug for the children's section? Now we are looking for a new table and chair set.

RUMC is preparing to THINK BIG!

In the next few months, the web page will be converted to a 50 page web site that will be home to not only the church but to its various groups and missions. We are asking for volunteers to help with this project. We need help from people with tech savvy and people with artistic imaginations. (You don't have to have both!) Communications is heading this project and our leader on this will be Kate Strom. Kate is temporarily home-bound (where we hear her imagination is working overtime), but we will have a sign up sheet at the welcome center for all those interested, or you can call Brenda Soskin at 410-908-5905 or email at bwsoskin@msn.com, for any questions.

The Circle of Friends

Save the date...
CHILDREN'S CONSIGNMENT SALE
Is on August 16th.

How can you help? Spread the word. We are searching for consignors interested in turning those outgrown baby and children's clothing items, toys, books and baby equipment into cash. If you know of any organizations we could contact please email Bonnie Lieberman at bnblieb@comcast.net or phone Bonnie at 410-313-9496.

In addition, we will be looking for volunteers to help with the sale on August 13th, August 15th and August 16th. Look for more details in the coming months.

Proceeds from past sales have been used to support youth, youth scholarships, college care packages, food pantry plus local and world wide missions.

Thank you in advance for your assistance,
Bonnie on behalf of the Circle of Friends (COF)

Towson United Methodist Church
501 Hampton Lane—Towson

This 30 member ecumenical women's chorus, directed by Phyllis Rudolph, is preparing for the annual Spring Concert to which the public is invited. Each Monday night, September through mid-June, the chorus either rehearses or takes it's music ministry to nursing homes, retirement centers, churches or civic organizations throughout the Baltimore/Central Maryland area. We invite and encourage you to support the Candlelighters by attending this free, public concert. Bring your friends!

Board of Child Care

1. Keep up with BCC news by going on the web-site. www.boardofchildcare.org
2. Thanks for all the food labels you collect. The Box Tops for Education and Labels for Education should be cut out along the dotted lines. Be careful not to tear them in half. Since last July Board of Child Care Agencies used points to order 2 iPad Minis, 2 sand/water tables, 1 music table, 2 quantum Big Screen microscopes, 1 Sprout and Grow Window and 1 set of playground balls. Also from Box Tops, $2,067.70 was earned. Put all labels in an envelope or baggie and place them in the UMW mailbox. Little things really add up. This is proof.

I Still Do
JOIN US FOR A ONE DAY
MARRIAGE EVENT THAT WILL STRENGTHEN YOUR RELATIONSHIP AND REKINDLE THE ROMANCE.

I KNOW, we just put on flip flops and I'm about to share something that isn't until the Fall!! It's such a popular event, I wanted to get our tickets now to reserve our spot, so I hope you will read on and better yet, join us!!!

Michael and I attended a Marriage Enrichment event several years back called "I Still Do" that was spiritually based and very powerful. It is coming back to our area October 4, 2014 and we want to invite YOU!!

We didn't go because we had struggles at that time, but thankfully, we did go before there were struggles and it equipped us and strengthened us in that journey. We attended with a couple, friends of ours, who were struggling at the time and I remember the husband becoming emotional afterward (and he wasn't all that emotional!) and saying to me "This was the most meaningful thing any friend of ours has ever done for us!" We didn't do anything but ask them to go, but sometimes just the invite is all someone needs! So? I'm inviting YOU!!!

If you've been married long enough, you know every married couple faces challenging times and God never wastes a hurt, he's used ours to be in ministry to others facing similar issues. That is a blessing and I'm grateful for ALL of the seasons of my marriage.

So wherever you are in your journey, will you join us?

Details:

When: October 4, 2014 8am - 5pm.

Lunch is included with your ticket price.

Time: 8am - 5pm

Where: Verizon Center, DC

Ticket Prices: (with lunch included!!) When we get TEN people (5 couples) they drop $20 each so the ticket prices range (based on seating selection) $39-$59

To indicate interest in attending email me at rumcnurse@gmail.com
