

Our Church Matters

Our Mission: Growing Together in Christ
Through Worship, Fellowship, Witness and Service

I'm writing this on the day after Pentecost. What an amazing celebration of the fire of the Holy Spirit! One of the highlights for me was at the 10:30 service when Madison and Megan Maxwell danced to a song written by a friend of mine for the clergy women of our annual conference.

Let the Fire Dance

Jan Powers

View the dance and heart the song from our Pentecost celebration here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XGrxfJwyYE&feature=youtu.be>

Let the fire dance.

See it whirling.

Let the fire dance – wild, unfurling.

Let the flames leap up within you,
curling round and round,
free to burn, twist and turn,
glowing colors abound!

Let the fire cleanse your spirit, burning the chaff away.
Set it free, flagrantly free.
Sin can't stand in its way!

Orange tongues to lick our wounds, amber to join our cries,
Heat and warm, light and life,
chasing away our sighs.

Let the fire dance. See it whirling.
Let the fire dance – wild, unfurling.
Let it dance and dance and dance and dance....

At the time that this song was written, clergywomen were experiencing a great deal of prejudice – for some more damaging than for others. Churches didn't want women in the pulpit. Quite a few male clergy felt threatened (although quite a few were also excellent mentors). Many people, both lay and clergy, felt that Paul's writings explicitly forbade women to be leaders. That verse that says women should be quiet in church and being submissive was very popular. (I find it ironic that this verse is in 1 Corinthians 14 – yes, the chapter immediately following the great Love Chapter! You should probably know that I'm smiling as I type this.) It was a hard time.

For me, my friend's words are both prayer and celebration – for the current day. Prayer for the power of the Holy Spirit to transcend whatever keeps us from God, empower every one of God's children to be and to do what God calls them to, and for the fire to light the way even when it is dark.

The celebration is that, despite the moments when life is hard, the Holy Spirit whooshes and dances onto the scene and brings new life. That can be personal, and that can be corporate. As Jan wrote: sin can't stand in its (the Holy Spirit's) way!

As the girls danced yesterday, my spirit soared!

Library Log

We have 3 simple rules in the library concerning check out.

1. Sign out the book on the card and stamp your due date on the card and on the book.
2. Return your book on time. We do not charge fines, but some readers are on a waiting list.
3. Return your book to our library, not to the public library. (Yes, this happens.)

We appreciate you. Come visit us soon. Think about summer reading.

Book Club will meet on Wednesday, June 20 at 7:00 in our library.

We will discuss the autobiography of Dr. Ben Carson called Gifted Hands. He tells his story of how he became a world renowned neurosurgeon who was the first to separate Siamese twins joined at the head. He gives much credit to his mother who made him do book reports! Come join us.

Way out in California, this lady was born to a family of Scottish descent. She attended public school and went on to get her B.S. in Sociology from University of Oregon and did graduate work at American University in Organization Development

She moved to Maryland when she began work at Westinghouse Corporation. Here she implemented Equal Employment Programs in the Manufacturing Division. After that, she joined the Maryland National Bank and designed employer management training and corporate quality check initiatives.

She was a single mom from the time her daughter was 2 years old and remarried when her daughter was 12.

She has three great loves: animals, chocolate, and her grand daughters - but not necessarily in that order.

Her hobbies are craft fairs, gardening, bird watching, and her grand daughters...

The most important thing about this woman is her faith journey.

This lady has been very active here at RUMC.

◇ She has participated in VIM trips and taught Sunday School

◇ She was a Member of the Visitation Team and part of a Kiwanis Team

◇ Often she is seen as our Worship Leader and can be found singing with the Seasoned Singers

◇ She has been a Delegate to Annual Conference and Secretary of Church Council

◇ She was Chairperson of both Staff Parish Relations Committee and the Stewardship Committee

◇ She Facilitated and Designed the Visioning Workshop for RUMC members

◇ She was part of the Planning Committee for the Food Pantry

◇ She was President of the UMW and planned and implemented many women's retreats

◇ She was part of the Planning Committee for His Hands & Feet and continues to be an active member of this mission

◇ She was instrumental in the creation and coordination of The Holly Fair for 3 years.

But none of these things means anything without her devotion to Christ This lady was not raised as a Christian, she was led to Christ through her daughter and became a Christian in her 40's. All that she does is because of the Lord's leading and directing of her. She is always looking to deepen her faith.

From the Shelves

Our church library has two more helpings of chocolate for you!

That's right, readers. We return to Warner Pier, Michigan, where we find our old friend Lee McKinney Woodyard in her office at TenHuis Chocolate.

In The Chocolate Moose Motive, Lee starts tongues wagging by hiring Sissy Smith, the self-proclaimed "Southwest Michigan Murderess" as her new bookkeeper. Sissy has an alibi for her husband's recent murder, but that doesn't stop her from being everyone's number one suspect. Then, Sissy's found standing over another dead body, and the tongues start wagging even more. Can Lee find the real killer and clear Sissy's name?

Then, in The Chocolate Clown Corpse, Lee's hoping to expand TenHuis Chocolate by purchasing the building next door. The previous owner was found murdered a month ago, but since an arrest was made, everyone considers the case closed. However, an attack on the victim's widow leads Lee to suspect that the real killer's still at large. Can she find him before he kills again?

If you're new to the Chocoholic Mysteries, our church library also has some of the earlier books in the series. They're worth checking out.

Are you looking for a place to serve at RUMC?

The Worship Team for the 8:30 service is looking for anyone who is interested in helping as a Worship Leader or Tech Support (sound or video). Training for any of these positions is available and scheduling is flexible. Some of the basic requirements are:

- For Worship Leader - Someone who is comfortable speaking in front of a group. There is a script that is printed each week and will be sent ahead of time so you can familiarize yourself with the service. If you are not comfortable leading prayer time, the pastor is willing to help out.
- For Sound Support - Someone who has an ear for sound blends and volume. Training for the sound board will be done by one of the experienced techs and someone will work with you before leaving you on your own.
- For Video Support - Someone who has basic computer skills. Usually video support involves setting up the power point presentations used during the service and recording the sermons (the application for this is on the computer). There are times when videos are played from the computer and they will have to be set up and displayed. Again training for this is available from one of the tech support people.

Each position is asked to be at church by 8:00 am to get things set up and make sure everything is in working order.

If you are interested in helping with any of these positions, please contact Pat Botelle at pat.botelle2@gmail.com or contact the church office at rumcoffice1777@gmail.com or call the church office at 410-833-5440.
