Our Mission: Growing Together in Christ
Through Worship, Fellowship, Witness and Service

Dear Friends

At press time, I am on vacation! However, we all know that our children and youth are headed back to school very soon, and The Upper Room has very thoughtfully provided an article to help parents invite their young people into spiritual practices during the day. I hope that you will take a moment to share one or more idea with your kids or grandkids to keep them connected with God as they go back to school.

See you in September!

Spiritual Practices for Going Back to School

August 5, 2018 by Sandy Miller (devozine)

School is back in session! Although you may be ready for the academic routine, young people will be diving back into schoolwork, homework, sports, rehearsals, exams, papers, and more. Finding time to be with God and to love their neighbors will be harder than ever.

You can shape the way your students will experience this school year. Whether you invite students to partner with you or to do it on their own, encourage the youth in your life to cultivate these back-to-school practices as they return to the hallowed halls of elementary, middle, or high school.

Listening. Pay attention to teachers and coaches. Be there for friends. Be open to God's nudges. Start each day by praying, "Speak, Lord. I'm listening."

Perseverance. When life is tough, don't give up. Press on in faith to achieve your goals. Find accountability partners to walk with you and to help you stay focused.

Questioning. Wrestle with God's Word. Don't be afraid to ask God questions. Join a small group that can help you grapple with faith questions for which you have no answers.

Sabbath. Make rest a priority. Seek balance. Find ways to refresh—body, mind, and spirit. Schedule "gimme a break" times in your planner—and keep them!

Noticing. Observe the ways God shows up in unexpected people or places. Marvel at the fingerprints of God clearly evident in nature, in other people, and in the shaping of your life.

Hospitality. Befriend the new kid. Welcome the stranger. Include those who are left out. Ask God to help you accept and appreciate what is strange or unique about you.

Loving Yourself. Be OK with not being perfect. Show yourself a little compassion and grace. Discover things you like—or love—about yourself, and create an “I Like Me” list.

Showing Respect. Love and respect go hand in hand. Learn to respect others by getting to know them. Share your story, and listen lovingly to the stories of others.

Prayer. Pray throughout the day. Talk with God as you do with friends. Don’t just go through the motions; be honest with God. Pray that you might become an answer to your prayers.

This material is adapted from devozine, September/October 2018. You can help the children and youth in your life cultivate these daily practices by giving them a subscription to Pockets or devozine.

The Charm Bracelet* by Viola Shipman.

This novel involves three women in one family: mother, daughter and granddaughter who discover the importance of family, love, faith, friends, fun and passion for living by sharing the charms on Lolla's bracelet given to her by her mother at the family lake home. If you have a charm bracelet you would like to show, please bring it to Book Club.

From the Shelves

A few months ago, my book club read The Chilbury Ladies' Choir by Jennifer Ryan. Chilbury is a small village in England, and when the men go off to fight World War II, the vicar decides to shut down the church choir. Wanting to provide musical inspiration to those left behind in the village, the female members fight to keep the choir open. Fortunately, there's a new choir director in town who can help them. Since an all-female choir is unheard of, the ladies face many obstacles, and we follow them through them all. We also learn about the personal lives of three of the choir members and how the war affects them. Check it out for yourself in our church library.

WOMEN'S GROUPS

Fall Kickoff and Mug Painting Party!

Join Circle of Friends on September 20th at 7pm in the Fellowship Hall for our fall kickoff meeting and to paint a mug for the Believe Big organization (believebig.org/believmugs/). All women are welcome! If you would like to paint a mug, please RSVP to Kate Strom at kgraham108@yahoo.com or text or call 443-722-6495.

CIRCLE OF FRIENDS WANTS TO

Thank Everyone

The Circle of Friends wants to thank everyone for the tremendous amount of help we received at the Consignment Sale:

- Those who helped set up on Thursday and break down and clean up again on Saturday.
- Those who sorted and hauled clothes, toys, bags and bins all day Friday and Saturday
- Those who donated, made and prepared food for volunteers
- Those who were room sitters, hallway monitors, cashiers and baggers
- Those who moved trailers, hung signs and shared Facebook posts
- And those who came out and shopped

We appreciate the way our church steps up and gets involved to make an event like this run smoothly.

We helped many people in the community. There were families that were able to make a little extra money with the sale of their items.

There were families that were able to clothe their children for school economically.

One day care center was able to purchase new equipment at an affordable cost.

The left overs were sent to Alpha Pregnancy, Sykes Toy Project and our Food Pantry, where they will continue to bless other families

All proceeds, as yet undetermined, will go to fund missions in our community.

Thank you all for the blessing you are to our community.

Congregational Update on the Turnbaugh Foundation

Cindy Smith, Committee Member

The last update on the Turnbaugh Foundation was in October, 2017. Prior to that was October, 2016. The Committee which approves financing projects and special requests wants to keep communication open with the Congregation. A quick review follows for our new folks and for those who are unsure what this is all about.

For many years our church library, named the Rachel Bruehl Memorial Library, was financially supported by Eleanor and Walter Turnbaugh, former members who moved to Florida. Mrs. Turnbaugh was Rachel Bruehl's daughter. In addition, many members have made donations or have set up memorials to help keep the library running. Several years ago our church received an awesome bequest from the Turnbaughs which is meant for the continuation and support of our library. The library has been able to buy new computer equipment, furniture, many new books, seasonal decorations and provide programs for our nursery school. Our records and history have been digitally preserved and may be studied in the library. Last summer a new door was designed and installed, and our other door was repaired.

The library mission statement is as follows: Growing together in Christ, the mission of the library is to transform the hearts and minds of the congregation and the community through education and spiritual enrichment. When any committee or individual applies for a Turnbaugh grant, they are required to justify the request according to the mission statement. The Foundation committee meets quarterly to review the applications. This process was approved by Charge Conference and has become our policy. At the year's end, when the library has fulfilled the goals of its budget, Trustees may spend what remains of the year's interest on capital improvements. Please be aware that Turnbaugh money may not be used for operating expenses such as salaries, utilities and apportionments.

Below are listed some of the expenditures since the last report in no particular order.

- ◆ Care Team – books for Baskets of Love and Over 90 Birthdays
- ◆ Advent study materials
- ◆ Excitement Sunday
- ◆ Books recommended in Pastor Vivian's messages
- ◆ Upgrades for nursery school furniture, equipment, toys and books for lessons
- ◆ Supplemental materials for Sunday School and VBS
- ◆ Yellow Roses devotional books
- ◆ Matching a grant to UMCOR for hurricane relief
- ◆ College care packages
- ◆ Rock Retreat
- ◆ Youth missions trip to St. Simon's Island
- ◆ Youth Leadership Conference
- ◆ Church camperships
- ◆ Nursery school scholarships
- ◆ Three sets of books for a 4th grade classroom in Baltimore City
- ◆ Hosting a young adult NA rock event
- ◆ New sound equipment
- ◆ Help with Community Crisis Center
- ◆ Gathering Grounds Young Adults
- ◆ Updating the Food Pantry
- ◆ Repairing the flat roof over the office area
- ◆ New HVAC for Sanctuary
- ◆ New parking lot lights

As you can see, RUMC is blessed (beyond belief!) by the Turnbaugh bequest. If you have any questions, please direct them to Randy Hart, Mark Norris, Pastor Vivian, or any of the Library Committee members.

THIS IS A REPEAT ARTICLE—CHOIR REHEARSALS BEGIN PROMPTLY AT 7:00 PM ON AUGUST 23RD AND EVERY THURSDAY EVENING IN THE CHOIR ROOM—WHY NOT GIVE IT TRY AND JOIN THE CHOIR THIS YEAR?

Tis' around 6:25 on Tuesday 7/24/18 and I am finishing the arranging and sorting of the music for December 2018 here at your church. Wow! It is really breath taking. Please accept my invitation to join choir this season. Yes, the singers will be at their best, but they will need help from those of you who have dreamed about standing with them on Sunday mornings.

Why not get caught up in the excitement of giving your gifts back to God and His people?

FOOD PANTRY CORNER

Greeting from the RUMC Food Pantry!

As I write this article, we are well underway in distributing BACKPACKS to our community children in need. In 3 clinics, we have distributed 87 bags thus far! Thank you to everyone that contributed monetary gifts, fully stocked backpacks, and individual school supplies to this annual drive. You are providing children with the proper resources to gain an education!

Save the date: Food Pantry Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon will take place on Sunday, October 7, 2018 at 11:30 am. Invites will be forwarded soon.

Starbucks: I am working on obtaining a contract with Starbucks in Hunt Valley. If you are interested in assisting with pick-ups, please email or text me your availability. This is one way of getting involved in the food pantry on your own time.

Pantry Assistance on OFF-HOURS: If you would like to assist the food pantry but can't come during open clinic times on Wednesday evenings and Saturday mornings, then are you willing to help pack bags on a weekday? I am looking for assistance to pack grocery bags, dairy bags, stock side shelves, fill up plastic bags & cut egg cartons. If you are interested, please let me know so that I can create a schedule. This can be individual, parent-child, or team based.

As the fall season approaches us, I want to take this time to THANK each and everyone that is involved in the Food Pantry in any way – financially, pick-up items/driver, work clinics, manage schedules, food shopper for needed items, school supplies, food drives, MD Food Bank truck deliveries, recycling pick-up, defrosting refrigerators, construction, shift leaders, all volunteers, all prayers, recycling egg cartons & plastic bags, always knowing where my glasses are located, etc. The food pantry runs well because WE ARE A TEAM that cares about our community! I am grateful & appreciate all of your assistance!
