

Our Church Matters

Our Mission: Growing Together in Christ
Through Worship, Fellowship, Witness and Service

Dear RUMC Family,

During the early days of the pandemic, when church buildings and businesses shut their doors and we were confined to life at home, I turned to music as a way to channel my longings and my prayers. My small group had stopped meeting, worship had gone completely online, and I didn't realize how much I was feeling the absence of hugs and handshakes, the "how-is-it-with-your-soul"-type check-ins, and the encouragement of my siblings in Christ - until my husband played me this song called "Church." (You can listen to it here.)

As I heard it, I let out a big "Yes!" It gave words to all the things I was feeling:

*Take me back
To the place that feels like home
To the people I can depend on
To the faith that's in my bones
Take me back to a preacher and a verse
Where they've seen me at my worst
To the love I had at first
Oh I want to go to church*

For sure, "church" looks a little different than it did 18 months ago. And during this time, a lot of us have found inspiration and encouragement from online worship and personal devotional time. Yet there is something about gathering with other people of faith - praying for one another, and reminding one another of the reason we have hope - that feeds the soul in a way that those things cannot. Gathering with the Body of Christ renews our sense of purpose, grounds us in our God-given identity, and empowers us to confront the challenges we face each day.

For those of you who are physically able to come to worship in person and are comfortable venturing out, I would like to invite you back. On September 12, we'll be celebrating "Excitement Sunday." It's an opportunity for our young people to meet their Sunday School teachers for the year, and an opportunity for all of us to share in vibrant worship, fellowship, and encouragement. We'll have refreshments, a moon bounce, and lawn games for our children and youth. How exciting would it be to have a full house that day as we kick off our September sermon series,

Wholehearted.

For those of you who cannot physically worship with us in person due to health reasons or distance, please let us know how we can be praying for you. You are an important part of our faith family, and the Body of Christ is not complete without you.

I pray that this fall allows opportunities for us to reconnect or to make new connections here at RUMC. I look forward to seeing many of you on the 12th, if not before!

Blessings to you!

Pastor Jen

Pray with me Church!!

Father Lord,

We thank You for the safe caring of our leaders and for this church family. We thank You for Your presence in these hours. We are a strong church built on a strong foundation.

Teach us Father about the love for one another. Your love can fill our minds with light for us to see clearly only the good, the right and Your truth. Your love can encourage us to be warm and compassionate as we interact with others. Let Your love reveal itself through our smiles, our positive approach, and our zest for better communication among us Christians in this YOUR church. Let Your love for us influence our every action. Wash more than our hands and feet Lord. Wash our minds and hearts. Let us dare to believe that we are spiritual beings, created in Your image and likeness. Let us dare to put our belief into action and accept ourselves as children of a kind and loving Father. Let us dare to believe these truths.

At some point, bring us ALL safely back to Your church Lord, where we can sing together, clap our hands together, and praise Your most holy name,... TOGETHER.

In His Service with You
Bill Myers
Director of Music Ministries
