Our Mission: Growing Together in Christ
Through Worship, Fellowship, Witness and Service

Dear RUMC Family,

As I was scrolling through my newsfeed recently, I came across an article declaring that this year's Christmas "is in jeopardy." For a brief moment I felt a flutter of anxiety - until I clicked on the article and began to read. It turns out that ongoing supply chain woes are threatening the availability of Christmas presents. And then I thought, "Is that really such a bad thing?"

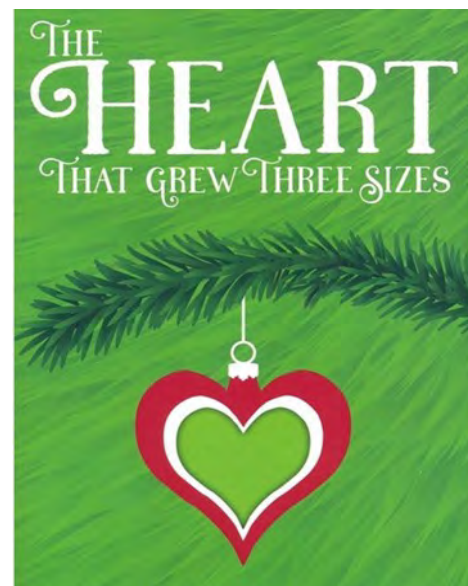

As we enter November, the holiday season is right around the corner. If you go into retail stores, it's already here. Every year we get pressured to buy more than we need, spend more than we have, and at the end of it all, Christmas comes and goes and we're left stressed out and in debt. Perhaps this disruption to our usual holiday gift-giving frenzy is a lifeline - permission to "opt out" of the Christmas that was never really Christmas in the first place.

The season of Advent begins at the end of this month, and it invites us to reflect on and prepare for the Christmas that cannot be taken away: the miracle of God with us - heaven meeting earth in the frame of a tiny infant. Some 2000 years ago, God proved that not even an unplanned pregnancy and a community's whispers, nor a lack of suitable lodging, nor a murderous king could thwart God's plan. This year, as we face another holiday season with COVID in the background, pumpkin pie shortages in the grocery stores, and news of supply chain issues and shipping delays, we could benefit from that reminder. That's why, on November 28, we'll be starting our Advent worship series, "The Heart that Grew Three Sizes," which is based on Dr. Seuss's How the Grinch Stole Christmas. Those of us who've read or watched the Grinch's story know that Dr. Seuss's title is misleading. In the end, the Grinch didn't actually steal Christmas, because he couldn't steal Christmas. Not the true Christmas, anyway. So mark your calendars, plan to join us, and invite a friend or a neighbor to come and experience the Christmas that can't be taken away.

Finally, I hope you'll join us Sunday, November 7 for our All Saints' Day service, as we remember the precious saints of God who have passed from life here with us into fuller life with God. To submit the names of friends or family members who have died in the past year so that they will appear in the sanctuary and bulletin, visit <https://forms.gle/Qh4NAUZoh46ZSug8> by Wednesday, November 3.

Blessings, and deep peace,

Pastor Jen

PUZZLE

A feast of praise

Throughout the Bible, God's people give thanks and praise for his goodness.

Directions: Draw lines to match the scriptures (all NIV) with the correct speaker.

|   |        |
|---|--------|
| "I thank my God every time I remember you." Philippians 1:3                               | Hannah |
| "My soul glorifies the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior." Luke 1:46-47        | David  |
| "He is my God, and I will praise him, my father's God, and I will exalt him." Exodus 15:2 | Mary   |
| "My heart rejoices in the LORD." 1 Samuel 2:1   | Paul   |
| "I will praise God's name in song and glorify him with thanksgiving." Psalm 69:30         | Moses  |

Answers: Philippians 1:3, Paul; Luke 1:46-47, Mary; Exodus 15:2, Moses; 1 Samuel 2:1, Hannah; Psalm 69:30, David

Dears,

Greetings in the mighty name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. May grace and peace be given unto you from above. Amen! We always give thanks to God for your lives and the multiform support that you lend us in our ministry.

We are doing fine despite all the problems and hardships caused by the COVID pandemic. Mbwizu and I are fully vaccinated, but statistics show that only 36% of the population is fully vaccinated in Belize where we are. Many people resist vaccination, putting thus others on risk.

The government has closed all churches, for the third time since the break out of the disease in March 2020. We have been allowed to reopen this week, but only vaccinated people can attend worship service. The government has issued a regulation (they call it: Statutory Instrument 'SI') that if police officers come to a church and find people who are not vaccinated, the pastor will be fined. This is a very challenging and embarrassing situation. Churches cannot discriminate people based on their health status. But at the same time churches must not put lives of people in jeopardy because of those who refuse deliberately to take a vaccine. It puts me as a minister a difficult position.

As a pastor in charge of 3 congregations, I have come up with an alternative: online service on Facebook: the preacher, the liturgist and those who do prayers, readings and announcements connect on Zoom; then everything is broadcasted on Facebook for members to watch on live streaming. While this helps everyone to stay at home and have the opportunity to worship far from being in contact with other people, it has also its own negative aspects: 1) we miss the direct fellowship with brothers and sisters; 2) only a few members of our church in this part of the world have android phones or tablets that can allow them to connect on Facebook; 3) Sunday offerings are dropping significantly and makes it difficult for the church to pay its bills and honor other financial responsibilities.

We appreciate your prayers and any kind of support for us and the ministry that God has called us to do in this part of the world.

Be always blessed!

COLORFUL
body

Melt crayons to show how the body of Christ works together.

What you need:

- Crayons
- Metal baking sheet
- Adult help
- Metal gingerbread man cookie cutter

What you do:

1. Remove labels and break crayons into 1-inch pieces.
2. Scatter pieces on the baking sheet, about two layers thick.
3. Bake for 10 minutes at 350 degrees until melted. Allow to cool 15 minutes.
4. When melted crayons are the consistency of playdough, press the cookie cutter through them (while still on pan).
5. Cool the pan in freezer for 15 minutes until crayons are hardened.
6. Remove from pan and break apart the shapes.
