A lot can happen in three days. As I was recounting our	RUMC Leadership	13

Sunday Worship vacation to other members of the family, I found myself saying those words and thinking about the end of Holy Week - Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday - whose events give way to the resurrection on Easter morning. In the Church, the time from Maundy Thursday to Easter Sunday was historically called the Triduum (the "Great Three Days"), though we don't hear that word very often now. It was given this title because these are the days that forever changed the world we live in and our life within it. After Jesus' death and resurrection, nothing would ever be the same.

I want to invite you to join us this Holy Week and celebrate these three days in their fullness. We'll have services at 7:00 p.m. on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday, as well as two opportunities to worship with us on Easter Sunday (8:30 & 10:00 am). As we remember the events that changed the world, our prayer and expectation is that they will also change us. May we each discover the joy and fullness of the resurrection.

Blessings for the journey,

Pastor Jen
