Our Church Matters

Issue 10

October 2014

Inside this issue:

From the Pastor

Experiencing God

Some years ago, Bishop Yeakel was going to come to our church to help us celebrate a huge milestone: paying off the mortgage. He sent me a letter asking that I provide him with the church's history so that he could prepare the sermon for the day. About ten days before the service, he called me and asked if I had sent him the right document. I was a bit flustered, a little panicked that I may have messed up – with the bishop, no less!

However, I had sent him what the church had. The church had been several different denominations, all predecessors to the United Methodist Church (they were Evangelical United Brethren before the merger in 1968), and their "history" was pretty much the list of names and addresses of the buildings. The bishop's question made me realize that I never again wanted a church that I had the privilege of serving as pastor to see their "history" as a procession of buildings or addresses or events but as experiences of God's presence and grace in our lives. (I apologize to those who have heard this story before. It was a milestone for me!)

Being a person of faith or being a faith family means, at its core, being related to God – praising, connecting with each other and with God through fellowship and caring, sharing and learning together, serving in missions and in leadership, and witnessing to how God meets us in our lives. We are very good at reporting on what we have done, talking about what we need to do, what we need to keep buildings presentable and in good repair, listing all of our projects and things like that. My spirit is often restless when I get to wondering about whether we recognize God's activity in our lives or God's presence in the world or God's voice of encouragement or direction or correction.

It makes me wonder: do we have a theological language?

So, I'd like to try a little experiment. For the next month, before you get out of bed each day, say the first line of the 23rd Psalm: The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. When you are ready for bed each evening, ask yourself: How did God lead me today? When did God fill my need?

November 5, 7 pm – Church Leaders meet with new member class to share opportunities for participation at RUMC. Light refreshments will be served.

More information about church membership can be found in the next article.

Blessings on you,

How to Become a Member of RUMC

Membership in a United Methodist Church means taking on several responsibilities by making several promises.

We promise to pray for each other and the church, to be there — our presence, to offer our gifts of both time and money, to serve in the church and beyond the church, and to witness to our faith.

It is not necessary to be a member of RUMC to participate in pretty much all of our ministries. There are a few offices that a non-member cannot hold because of our church law, but other than that, you are welcome to be a fully participating part of the RUMC faith family. We will care for you in every way (such as funerals, weddings, etc.), whether you are a member or not.

It is my prayer that many of those who visit will feel called to become members of the church, but you are welcome to be part of our faith family for as long as you wish without becoming a member.

That said, there will be 2 opportunities in 2014 to become a member of RUMC: in April and again in the fall. Our membership process requires that you commit to attend 2 gatherings before new member Sunday and then be present on the special Sunday.

The Gatherings:

Sunday, October 19, about 11:45am. In the Fellowship Hall Vivian will meet with the prospective new members to talk together about being United Methodist. Lunch will be provided.

Wednesday, November 5, at 7 pm, the prospective new members will meet with the leaders of the church who will share about our ministries and get to know the new members.

Sunday, November 9, new members will join the church at both Services (whichever one you normally attend), and a special coffee hour will be held so that new members may be acquainted with the congregation.

If you are interested in becoming a member of RUMC, please let the pastor know via email or the Connection Card. Or call the church office if you'd like to talk about it first!

From the Music Corner

As happy feelings flow through me, I experience joy in my heart and peace in my soul.

On Sunday September 21st, the music of the 10:30 service reminded me of what it means to be a musician for Christ. One had to let go the unhappy, negative emotions that sometimes creep into daily living.

Once we became aware of the presence of God, we greatly desire to maintain a continuous, permanent awareness of His presence.

On Sunday morning, we were truly one with God. For this experience, my heart rejoices. Thanks be to the Holy One and our music makers.

BOARD OF

HOLIDAY PREPARATIONS

It is not too soon to begin planning your donations for the holidays at Board of Child Care. Again this year Thanksgiving baskets will be given to the Foster Care Families. Our contribution will be cranberry sauce, green beans (15 oz. cans) and low sugar powdered drink mix. All donations are due by the last Sunday in October in order to determine what is still needed for the Nov. 13th packing date. Place your gift in the Board of Child Care box in the Narthex.

In early December a Christmas Store will be set up for the children served by the Board of Child Care to "purchase" gifts for their family members. The Auxiliary collects new and like-new items and sells them at very low prices and provides a gift-wrapping service. The items are sold separately or organized into gift baskets.

Use your imagination along with common sense. Avoid stuffed animals and sharp objects. See page 15 for shopping list

Food Pantry and Community Kitchen

The Food Pantry reached a new high, handing out 230 bags in August. In addition, we handed out school supplies to around 75 students.

Unfortunately, our donations dropped off this summer, right when our need grew. We had to purchase a lot of food over the summer, tapping into our financial reserve. Can you help with a financial or food donation? Or perhaps you know a business that might hold a food drive or make a year-end donation?

We have been able to add meat to our bags, thanks to the generosity of the Westminster Rescue Mission. They have shared their overflow of donated meat twice a month.

For the months of November and December, we would like to add holiday items to our bags. We are now collecting stuffing, mashed potatoes, gravy, cranberry sauce, dessert mixes, cookies, etc. in addition to our regular staple items.

We are also accepting fall and winter clothes at the food pantry. Remember that we have no storage space for off-season clothes; please do not send in shorts and summer items. Clothes must be clean, and in good condition.

The Community Lunch served 52 in September. We also sent home 35 take-out meals and froze 26 meals for the food pantry. Our next lunch will be October 4 at 11:30. If you would like to help with prep work on Friday or Saturday, please contact Lani Hoffmann at 410-526-6967 or lanio5@verizon.net.

UMW COMBINED MEETING

Join us October 2nd at 7:00 pm in the RUMC Library for Fellowship and to learn more about the Alpha Pregnancy Center located right across the street from the church. All are welcome. We will be holding a baby shower for the center. Items will be collected during the months of September and October and can be placed in the bin in the Narthex. All items should be new.

1. Kids -- School is back in session. Remember our children and youth sections when it comes time to do a book report.

2. Adults -- Are you ever asked to present devotions at a group meeting? Never fear; the library has a sizable collection of resources found in our Inspiration section. You will find poems, stories, Bible verses and prayers all connected to various themes. Take time to browse. You will be amazed at what you can find.

3. Book Club will meet Wednesday, October 15 at 7:00 in our library. We will discuss the novel Orphan Train by Christina Baker Kline. Between 1854 and 1929 "orphan trains" ran between the East Coast and the Midwest farmlands transporting thousands of abandoned children with the intention of finding homes for them. Some were lucky; some were not. Vivian Daly, now 91 and living in Maine, was one of those children. Molly Ayer is a troubled teen trying to stay out of juvenile hall. She takes on a service project to help Vivian clean her attic. An unexpected and wonderful friendship develops between these two characters.

From the Shelves

Are you ready for another helping of chocolate? If so, there's a new "Chocoholic Mystery" for you in our church library.

In "The Chocolate Jewel Case," Lee McKinney Woodyard's beloved Warner Pier, Michigan, is plagued by a series of burglaries. The crimes become personal when Lee and her husband, Joe, are held hostage during one of the burglaries. To make things more complicated, a man shows up claiming to be Joe's father, who's been presumed dead for thirty years! Lee has a real "gem" of a case on her hands this time. Check it out for yourself.

Note from the RUMC Kitchen

Thank you to the cleaning elves who spent several hours working in the kitchen last week. The shelves of the cabinets have been cleaned and organized. The refrigerator and freezer have been cleaned and all questionable food discarded. All food dates have been checked and items marked so we can use those in order of expiration. All utensils, pots and pans, etc. are now in the assigned drawers and cabinets which are marked for easy access. Lastly, the carts we use constantly are being cleaned and scoured as I write this message. Please remember to put things back where you found them when using the kitchen facilities. We have a lot of people using our kitchen, more than ever before. If we all do our part to keep things clean and organized it will make it easier for all involved. Special thanks to Judy, Joanne, Cindy, Alice, Linda, Lani, Bonnie, Charles and Lois. You guys are awesome!! Oh, late note, our special guy, Tommy came in and my stoves are now spotless!!!! CALLING ALL WRITERS AND REPORTERS

We want this to be YOUR Newsletter, not just an announcement "Newspaper." Did you attend a Coffee House, help out at the Food Pantry, volunteer with His Hands and Feet? We want to hear your story on how God touched you through any of these and anything else that you can think of. If you are interested, please contact the office or submit an article about what God is doing in you or in your ministry, your family, your work—or wherever you see the Lord working! God is at work and we need to be sharing that with one another to uplift, encourage and proclaim the goodness of the Lord!

We are grateful for the connections and prayer support at RUMC during this difficult time. During these critical health issues for me Dick will be celebrating his 75th birthday on Monday September

22. Many at RUMC were there for his 70th birthday party and made it a special time for him and for the family.

Again we appreciate the relationships we have at with our sisters and brothers at RUMC.

Blessings,
Ann (Harden)

Dear Friends

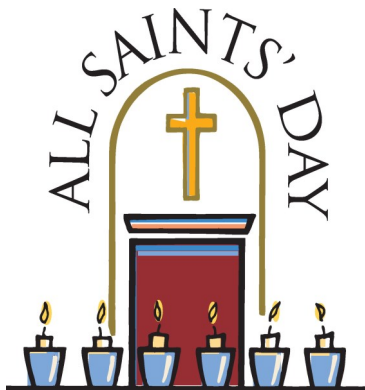

Just a short note to say thank you for the prayers, thoughts and cards, I have been ill for over 2 years with various issues. I was sad as well as angry with God because I thought that I would never feel well ever. Finally, about 2 weeks ago I woke up and felt fantastic. There is a God! One more thing, I will be having another surgery on my left foot and ankle. When, I don't know. Soon I hope. Get it over with.

God Bless each and everyone of you
Love, Ginger Gelwicks

His Hands and Feet...and Ears

Imagine how we felt when we met with four of the men on a Thursday evening and learned that their "camp" in the woods had been demolished by the authorities. Until now, the group had been observed but left alone. And now, "for no reason" it was gone, their charcoal grill demolished, their tarp confiscated, and their "stuff" thrown in the dumpster! We passed out some picnic lunches and bottled water, and listened. And listened. I guess we are also God's ears....

One man said he loved the Gospel of John and spoke from this book most of the night. He said he's read the Bible but doesn't have one now. His face lit up when we promised to bring him one, and we would like to provide a Bible for the other men who are interested as well. Another man, with tears in his eyes, said that he feels God calling him...calling him to change his life, to stop drinking, and come back to church.

The group is concerned -- they see the geese in V formations up above and know that cold weather is coming. One of them spent last winter in the camp, with four-degree weather. Another has only been out of work for four weeks and needs a steady job -- he has a wife and three children back home, and is assisting his father in delivering sermons each week (the father uses Spanish and the son translates into English)! At least three of the men are bilingual.
